

Atlas Group within its commitment to contribute to environmental improvement, annually establish objectives to improve specific protocols and to improve our work procedures.

Additionally, Atlas Group have environmental indicators which give information on our environmental performance, which in turn serve as a basis for decision making within our organisation.

We monitor our impact on the environment and the results are at your disposal.

If you wish to see the results, please contact our Department of Health, Environment and Prevention:
elisa@atlas-group.es